

Hayley A. Barnard

Inclusion Thought Leader
CEO of Mix Diversity Developers
Diversity Consultant
Executive Board Coach

Hayley Barnard is a prominent keynote speaker, consultant and trainer to top-level executives across the world. She is a subject matter expert on Diversity, Equity & Inclusion, Inclusive Leadership and Unconscious Bias. She advises boards of organisation on how they can achieve greater retention, and become more profitable and innovative through inclusion of diversity.

Hayley combines the latest research on inclusion of diversity with first-hand experience, helping a wide range of companies establish what inclusion looks like for them, what their business case is and how to move the agenda forward. Hayley has:

- Designed Inclusive Leadership programs for companies such as Astrazeneca, Boston Scientific, Capital One, EY, Experian, Mazars, Kerry Group, Roche, and T-Sytems.
- Advised the Irish government on the introduction of Gender Pay Gap Reporting legislation and how to help companies reduce their pay gap.
- Provided keynotes and board level briefings for clients including Microsoft, Vodafone, Nissan, Virgin Media, JustEat, Teva, H&M, Konica Minolta, and many others.
- Spoken at over 250 events across banking and finance, construction and engineering, aerospace, FMCGs, legal, telecoms, technology, pharma, and the energy sector.
