

Hayley A. Barnard

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Expert
Adventurer
Keynote speaker

Hayley Barnard is a prominent keynote speaker, entrepreneur and consultant to top-level executives across the globe. She is a subject matter expert on Diversity and Inclusion, Unconscious Bias and Inclusive Leadership. She advises boards of global corporations on how they can become more profitable and innovative through inclusion of diversity.

After gaining her first Board level post at age 26, Hayley went on to found three companies in her 30s and is the CEO of MIX Diversity Developers, alongside two NED roles.

Hayley co-led a team of women on a trek across the Arctic Circle, has swum around Manhattan Island and successfully swum across the English Channel. She is an expert at making people think differently so that they WANT to take action.

Motivational Speaker

Hayley provides entertaining and inspirational speeches for company conferences, annual meetings, associations and corporate events.

From trekking across the Arctic, to swimming the English Channel and running three companies alongside a family, Hayley knows a thing or two about maintaining motivation.

She shows delegates some practical strategies to help them realise their goals and believe in their own potential. Most importantly, Hayley equips delegates with the tools not only to achieve, but also to foster a work/life balance which makes for healthy and resilient workforces and individuals.
